

Potential Building Site Replacing Redundant Agricultural Building, West Heath, Holm, KW17 2SA

Planning consent may be available to replace this redundant agricultural building with a dwellinghouse. Prospective purchasers should make their own enquires with the Department of Planning at Orkney Islands Council. The property offers views over surrounding farmland with Scapa Flow in the distance. The site will extend to 1200m² (40m x 30m) or thereby.

Interested parties should note that the purchaser will be liable for the cost of taking services to the new property and creating a new 5m wide access track along the route shown in blue on the plan overleaf.

To view simply go to the building but please note that there is no access to be taken over the neighbouring property of New Banks.
